if the data on candidatures for the management and control bodies of the Company are incomplete;

the proposals do not meet the requirements of legislative acts.

43. Shareholders (shareholder) have the right to amend the list of nominees nominated by them to the Supervisory Board and the Audit Commission of the Company not later than three working days from the date of publication of the notice on holding the Annual General Meeting of shareholders.

44. The decision of the Company's Supervisory Board on inclusion or reasoned refusal to include the issue on the agenda of the General Meeting of shareholders or a candidate on the list of candidates for election to the management and control bodies of the Company shall be sent to the shareholder (s) who submitted the question or submitted the proposal, not later than three working days from the date of its adoption.

45. The decision of the Company's Supervisory Board on refusal to include the issue on the agenda of the General Meeting of shareholders or a candidate in the list of candidates for voting on election to the management and control bodies of the Company may be appealed to the court.

IV. PREPARATION FOR HOLDING AN EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

46. An extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders is held by decision of the Company's Supervisory Board on the basis of:

his own initiative;

requirements of the Audit Commission;

requirements of the shareholder (shareholders) owning at least 5% of the Company's voting shares as on the date of the request (in accordance with Appendix No. 5).

47. The grounds for the request for an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders on early termination of the powers of the Supervisory Board are:

non-compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the Charter, decisions of the General Meeting of shareholders; causing the Company losses and damage to the property rights of shareholders, including those associated with a significant deterioration in financial and business activities, a decrease in profit and profitability of the Company, an unjustified reduction in the implementation of works and services; presence of signs or threat of occurrence of economic insolvency (bankruptcy) of a Company, presence of a steady debt before the state budget, off-budget funds, on payment of wages to workers.

48. In the request to hold an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders, issues to be included in the agenda of the meeting should be formulated, specifying the motives for their introduction. In case the convocation of the extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders is caused by the introduction of the question of early termination of the powers of the members of the Supervisory Board, the requirement to convene such a meeting should contain proposals in addition to the question of early termination of the powers of the Supervisory Board to include the election of a new composition of the Supervisory Council.

49. The Supervisory Board of the Company shall not be entitled to make changes in the wording of the issues on the agenda of the extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders convened at the request of the Audit Commission of the Company or shareholder (shareholders) owning at least five percent of the Company's voting shares.

50. In case the request to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders comes from a shareholder (shareholders), it must contain the name of the shareholder (shareholders) requesting the convocation of the meeting, specifying the number, type of shares owned by him.

51. The request to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders is signed by a person (persons) demanding convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders.

52. Within 10 days from the date of presentation of the demand of the auditing committee of the Company or shareholder (shareholders) owning not less than five percent of the voting shares of the Company, an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders should be made a decision on convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting by the Supervisory Board of the Company or on refusal to convene it.

53. A decision on the refusal to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders at the request of the Audit Commission of a Company or a shareholder (shareholders) owning at least five percent of the Company's voting shares may be taken in cases where:

a shareholder (shareholders) requiring convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders is not the owner of the number of voting shares of the Company provided for in Paragraph one of this Paragraph;

none of the issues proposed for inclusion in the agenda is attributed to the competence of the General Meeting of shareholders;

the issue proposed for inclusion in the agenda does not meet the requirements of the law.

54. The decision of the Supervisory Board on convocation of an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders or a reasoned decision to refuse its convocation shall be sent to the persons requesting its convocation not later than three working days from the moment of its adoption.

55. The decision of the Supervisory Board of the Company to refuse to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders may be appealed to the court.

56. If, within the period specified in Clause 52 of this regulation, the Supervisory Board of the Company does not take a decision to convene an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders or a decision is made to refuse its convocation, an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders may be convened by persons requiring its convening.

In this case, the costs of preparing for the General Meeting of shareholders can be reimbursed by the decision of the General Meeting of shareholders at the expense of the Company's funds.

57. Preparation for holding an extraordinary General Meeting of shareholders is carried out by the Supervisory Board, or in the cases established by law, a person convening a General Meeting of shareholders in the manner prescribed by this Regulation.

V. QUORUM OF THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

58. The General Meeting of Shareholders is eligible (has a quorum) if, at the time of the end of registration, shareholders (their representatives) holding in aggregate more than fifty percent of the votes of the placed voting shares of the Company were registered for participation in the General Meeting of Shareholders.

59. In the event that preferential shares are voting only on one or more items on the agenda, the quorum of the meeting is determined from the number of ordinary shares submitted, and the count of votes on these issues is made from the total number of voting ordinary and preferred shares.

60. If within more than 120 minutes after the established time of the meeting the quorum is not yet collected, the date of the repeated General Meeting of shareholders is announced. The agenda may not be amended during a repeated General Meeting of shareholders.

61. A repeated General Meeting of shareholders convened instead of the failed one is eligible if at the time of the registration for registration there are registered shareholders (their representatives) holding in aggregate more than forty percent of the votes of the placed voting shares of the Company.

The notice on holding a repeated General Meeting of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the procedure established by this Regulation.

62. In case of postponing the date of the General Meeting of Shareholders due to the absence of a quorum for less than 20 days, shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting are determined in accordance with the Register of Shareholders entitled to participate in the abortive General Meeting

VI. WORKING BODIES OF THE GENERAL MEETING

63. The working bodies of the General Meeting are: Presidium, Counting Commission, Secretary (Secretariat).

64. The Presidium and the Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be elected at the General Meeting of Shareholders. The General Meeting of shareholders is headed by the Chairman of the Supervisory Board of the Company, and in case of his absence for valid reasons – by one of the members of the Supervisory Board of the Company.

65. The Chairman of the General Meeting of shareholders heads the presidium of the meeting, ensures the conduct of the meeting and has for this all the powers necessary for the proper exercise of his duties.

66. The Chairman of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to allow audio and video recording and broadcasting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the Internet.

67. The Chairman of the General Meeting manages the course of the meeting, coordinates the actions of the working bodies of the General Meeting, determines the order of discussion of the issues, limits the time for the speakers to speak, gives explanations on the conduct of the assembly and voting, controls the order in the hall.

68. The Chairman of the General Meeting shall sign the minutes of the General Meeting.

69. To count votes, register shareholders for participation in the General Meeting of shareholders, and issue ballots for voting, the Supervisory Board of the Company creates a Counting Commission whose quantitative and personal composition is approved by the General Meeting of shareholders.

70. In case of involvement of independent experts to perform the functions of a Counting Commission, they perform the work of the Counting Commission.

71. The Counting Commission shall consist of not less than three people. The Counting Commission can not include members of the Supervisory Board and the Audit Commission of the Company, the Chairman of the Company's management board, as well as the persons nominated for these positions.

72. Voting at a General Meeting of shareholders is carried out on the principle of "one voting share of the Company - one vote", except for cases of cumulative voting on the election of members of the Supervisory Board of the Company.

73. Voting at the General Meeting of shareholders on items on the agenda is carried out by ballots for voting.

74. In the case of voting, votes are cast for those issues in which only one of the possible voting options is left to the voter. Voting ballots filled in violation of this requirement are recognized as invalid and votes on the questions contained in them are not counted.

In the event that the voting ballot contains several issues put to the vote, failure to comply with the requirement specified in the first paragraph of this paragraph with respect to one or more issues does not entail invalidation of the voting ballot in general.

75. To count votes, register shareholders for participation in the General Meeting of shareholders, and issue ballots for voting, the Supervisory Board of the Company creates a Counting Commission whose quantitative and personal composition is approved by the General Meeting of shareholders.

76. In preparing for the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Counting Commission performs the following functions:

- on the basis of the register, compiles a List of Shareholders entitled to participate in the General Meeting of shareholders;

- issues ballot papers for voting and other materials of the General Meeting, keeps a record of the ballots issued.

- registers shareholders (their representatives) for participation in the General Meeting;

- keeps a record of powers of attorney and the rights granted by them;

- Issues ballots for voting and other information (materials) of the General Meeting;

- gives shareholders the necessary information on the agenda before the General Meeting of shareholders;

- determines the presence of a quorum of the General Meeting of shareholders;

- clarifies the issues raised in connection with the implementation by shareholders (their representatives) of the right to vote at the General Meeting;

- clarifies the procedure for voting on issues to be voted on;

- ensures the established voting procedure and the rights of shareholders to participate in voting;

- counts votes and summarizes the voting results;

- draws up a protocol on the results of voting;

- sends the ballot papers to the archive.

VII. THE ORDER OF THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

77. The procedure for holding a General Meeting of shareholders is approved in accordance with this Regulation at each General Meeting of shareholders.

78. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board proposes to elect the Presidium and the Secretary (Secretariat) of the General Meeting, as well as the composition of the Counting Commission.

79. The procedure for holding a General Meeting provides for the time of the beginning and anticipated end of the meeting, the length of speeches and breaks, the sequence of items on the agenda, the names and positions of rapporteurs on the agenda, the procedure for voting and the announcement of its results.
